

HPD Incident #: 6935515

Name: Unknown

Date: Saturday, January 17, 2015

Time: 11:23 AM

Location: Houston, TX

Offense: Robbery -Injury

The female complainant in this case had just returned home after making a stop at the bank at which time she was confronted by a black male suspect wearing a red hooded jacket who was armed with a tire iron. The suspect then struck the complainant in her head several times with the crow bar causing severe trauma to her head and robbed her of her purse containing her credit cards. The suspect fled from the scene in an older model Ford truck that was reported stolen in a robbery car-jacking of a female that occurred on a couple of hours prior to this incident. Approximately thirty minutes after robbing and assaulting the female complainant with the crow bar, the suspect is captured on video surveillance at a shell station in the 5900 block of the West Loop South using the female complainant's stolen credit card to obtain gas in the stolen white truck.
